Welcome to MLP Events & Catering

We bring a tantalising feast of flavours to your table, making every event a 5-star Culinary experience

For all your catering & events need

About Us:

Conceptualised by Executive Chef David Molopyane in 2012, MLP is a culmination of his twenty years of culinary experience and draws on his exposure to different cuisine – its where Gourmet meets Fusion and introduces it to Traditional.

MLP specialises in offering tantalising, culinary delights – from platters, fine dining, daily meals & end to end event management.

For Romantic dinners, Buffet lunches, kiddies parties, Corporate and Private events, we offer a sensory experience of exquisite cuisine.

Although based in Gauteng, we are able to provide our culinary service and events management across South Africa as well as our neighbouring countries.

Meet your Chef

Executive Chef David Molopyane was born in Bethanie, a small town in the Bojanala District Municipality of the North West.

He began his culinary journey at the Garankuwa Hotel School.

David's twenty-year journey began as a Junior Chef and he earned his way through the ranks to Sous Chef and eventually Executive Chef at 5-star establishments.

Executive Chef - David Molopyane

He has worked in diverse industries – from managing the culinary requirements at Corporate companies to 5-star hotels. Another cap he has worn has been that of Chef Instructor at a Culinary Training Institution in Mafikeng.

His international exposure has enabled him to develop his eclectic approach to both local and international cuisine.

As the owner of MLP Events and Catering, David is committed to using this extensive expertise and experience to provide each client with a memorable, culinary journey regardless of the occasion – whether for birthday parties, corporate functions, church events, weddings or 5-star banqueting.

From designing the menu, preparation, plating up and serving, David's hands-on approach is focused on allowing his guests to relax knowing that all their culinary requirements are taken care of.
